One Water One Watershed
Steering Committee

County Supervisor Representatives

Curt Hagman was elected to serve San Bernardino County’s Fourth District in November of 2014. His experience started as a Parks/Recreation Commissioner in Chino Hills. In 2004, he was elected to the Chino Hills City Council, and served as Mayor in 2008. He has worked on numerous regional committees, including his involvement with the San Bernardino County Workforce Investment Board – which is tasked with addressing major workforce issues in the county. In addition, Supervisor Hagman is a member on the Board Directors for the Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG), OmniTrans, and the San Bernardino County Associated Governments (SANBAG).

Doug Chaffee was elected to serve Orange County’s Fourth District in January 2019. Mr. Chaffee currently serves as a member of the Fullerton City Council, Chairman of the Fullerton Redevelopment Oversight Committee, Fullerton City Council representative on Homelessness, member of the Arboretum Joint Powers Authority, and member of the Fullerton Sister City Association Board of Directors. He is a past recipient of the Mr. YMCA Award. Mr. Chaffee has his Bachelor of Administration in Economics and holds a Juris Doctor degree from the Northwestern University School of Law.

Riverside County Supervisor - VACANT

County Municipal Representatives

Jose Solorio was elected to the City Council for Santa Ana in November 2016. In his prior roles as Santa Ana community college board member and State Assemblyman, he focused his efforts on education, job creation, public safety and infrastructure improvements. Mr. Solorio successfully worked with Governor Schwarzenegger and legislative leaders to author and co-author laws to reform state prisons, create the state’s first gang czar, and secure grants to help prevent gang involvement and youth violence in Anaheim, Garden Grove and Santa Ana. Mr. Solorio has nearly 20 years of public affairs, marketing, public relations, research and communications experience.

Deborah Robertson was elected Mayor of Rialto in November 2012. Her public service career includes 12 years on the Rialto City Council, leadership positions at the Southern California Association of Governments, the San Bernardino Associated Governments, and more than 20 years with the California Department of Transportation. She is a founding board member for the NFL/AFL Youth Life Skills Camp, has hosted the annual State of Women event in Rialto for the past seven years, and was recognized by Assembly Member Cheryl Brown as 47th District Woman of the Year.

Rusty Bailey was elected Mayor of Riverside in 2012. He has worked for the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, the Executive Office of the President, and the Riverside Economic Development Agency. He holds a Master’s in Public Policy from the University of California, Los Angeles and a teaching credential from California State University San Bernardino. He was elected to serve as the Riverside City Council representative for Ward 3 in 2007. Mayor Bailey also served as a helicopter pilot in the United States Army, a platoon leader, and a Company Executive Officer.
Santa Ana Watershed Project Authority Representatives

Kati Parker currently serves as Secretary/Treasurer of the Inland Empire Utilities Agency. She serves as the Agency’s representative on the Regional Policy Committee, the Oversight Board of the Successor Agency to the Upland and Montclair Redevelopment Agencies. She is a representative to the Chino Basin Watermaster and Inland Empire Regional Composting Authority. Ms. Parker has her Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Resources Engineering with a specialty in Water Quality and also holds a Master’s degree in Civil Engineering. She has been a resident of the City of Upland since 2000.

Denis R. Bilodeau, P.E. currently serves on the Orange County Water District Board of Directors, representing division 2, which includes Orange, Villa Park and parts of Tustin. Some of the committees and commissions he has served on throughout Orange County (OC) include: OC Vector Control, OC Transportation Authority, San Joaquin Hills Transportation Corridor Agency, OC Sanitation District, OC Housing and Community Development Commission, OC Water Task Force, and the Los Angeles and San Gabriel River Watershed Taskforce. Previously, Director Bilodeau served as a councilmember of the city of Orange. Director Bilodeau is a licensed civil and traffic engineer. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in civil engineering from the University of California, Irvine.

Business Community Representative

James Hessler is the Director of West Coast Operations, with responsibility for operations in San Diego, Riverside, and Monterey counties. He is a life-long nurseryman, and has worked on nursery and landscape water issues for many years. All of the nursery facilities have significant and unique recycling systems. Jim received his Bachelor of Science in Ornamental Horticulture from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, and his MBA from Colorado State University. He is also a member of the advisory board for Clean Water 3, a group of water researchers from throughout the country focusing on developing best practices for recycling water, remediating water, and reducing the use of water.

Environmental Community Representative

Garry W. Brown is the Founder, Board President and Executive Director of the Orange County Coastkeeper. He has extensive knowledge of marine and water runoff issues, as well as water supply issues. He formerly served as an Assistant City Manager, an advocate and Executive Director of trade associations in the real estate and building industries, and twice as president of the Chamber of Commerce. In 2001, he founded the Orange County League of Conservation Voters. He currently serves on the boards for numerous State and local environmental organizations.

Regional Water Quality Control Board Representative

Linda Ackerman serves as Vice-Chairman on the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California board representing the Municipal Water District of Orange County. Currently, she serves on the Communications and Legislation Committee, the Water Quality and Operations Committee, the IRP Committee and the Special Committee on the Bay-Delta. Ackerman presently serves as vice chair for the Santa Ana Regional Water Quality Control District. She has served on the board since 2010. She was appointed by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger and reappointed by Governor Jerry Brown.